

Documents/ Certificates Required for Issuance of Recommendation Letter to NEPRA for Award of Upfront Tariff

- i. Type certification of proposed Wind Turbine Generator (WTG) on IEC-WT01 standard/scheme by one of the following or any other international institutes/organizations/laboratories etc. subject to acceptability of AEDB:
 - a. Germanischer Lloyd Group
 - b. DNV KEMA
 - c. TÜV Nord Cert
 - d. TÜV SÜD
 - e. Risø DTU
 - f. DEWI-OCC
 - g. China General Certification Centre
- ii. Certificate from Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) that the contracted model of WTG is in their current range of production and the specifying the year of production of the product being supplied to the project.
- iii. Manufacturer Certificate of Quality with respect to the element that WTG is a state-of-art design and new production (unused).
- iv. Undertaking by project company that the proposed wind turbine generators will be new and comply with the latest IEC and NTDC standards/specifications further that the proposed wind plant and machinery have a proven experience/track record with [number] of installations worldwide along-with-project/complex total capacities.
- v. Certificate from EPC contractor that the wind turbine generators will be new and comply with the latest IEC and NTDC standards/specifications further that the proposed wind plant and machinery have a proven experience/track record with [number] of installations worldwide along-with project/complex total capacities.